New Principal For East Junior High

East Junior High School's new principal will be Dr. Richard F. McGrail, a Boston College faculty member with ten years experience in junior high schools as teacher, department head, assistant principal and principal.

Dr. McGrail received his doctorate in administration and supervision Monday from Boston Colby East Junior High faculty, administrators, and were put through their paces with the school committee in executive session.

Mr. McGrail received his AB degree from St. Anselm's College, Manchester, N.H., in 1953, and his Master's degree in Education from Boston College in 1960.

He taught junior high school for three years at Watertown, and for three at Wayland, where he was social studies department head for a fourth year, and assistant principal for the next two years. He was principal of the Holliston Middle School from February, 1967 through the end of the following academic year. The new EJHS head returned to Boston College in September, 1968 to serve on the staff of the Institute of Human Sciences, and as editor of the Institute's Review, then became a Boston College faculty member, while completing his doctorate in education.

Dr. McGrail is co-author of "Community Control of Schools: A Review of Issues and Options," published last year in "Urban and Social Change Review." During Boston College's summer session, Dr. McGrail will be teaching graduate courses, leading seminars on secondary education and on curriculum development in secondary education.

Superintendent Seifert told the TOWNSMAN that Dr. McGrail's education, training and experience were impressive indeed, and present East Junior High Principal Dorothy Partridge pointed out that the principal-elect has every level of experience in junior high school teaching and administration.

lege's School of Education, where he has been a lecturer, assistant to the director of the Institute of Human Sciences and will teach graduate courses and seminars through the summer session.

His formal election will take place at the next school committee meeting, June 16, but was assured last Wednesday evening when Superintendent Dr. Kenneth R. Seifert recommended McGrail to the school committee. The recommendation came after four finalists out of a field of 79 applicants had been through the mill of approval

Fieldstones Open Until At Least Fall

Fieldstones restaurant on South Main street will be open during the summer months, according to owner Edward Romeo.

A report last week indicated that the restaurant would close early this summer and ownership of the building would be by the Andover Lodge of Elks.

Romeo reports that the Elks are negotiating for purchase of the building and subject to consummation of agreements, and other legalities would probably lead to an early fall closing of the restaurant.

The current owner emphasized that he intends to continue his business until September, anyway.

No Town Meeting In June

It would appear now that there will be no special town meeting this month and that contemplated business will be put off to the scheduled October town meeting.

Town Manager J. Maynard Austin said this week that he did not anticipate a special meeting this month, since the prime issue, funds for the Central school addition, will not be ready for consideration.

While the building committee has pretty much agreed on the preliminary plans, these are still subject to review by the State Building Assistance commission. This will not be possible within the remaining weeks in June. That is, the review, the drawing up of an article and legally advertising the warrant.

With vacation time approaching, it is felt that calling of special meeting in July or August would be unwise.

Thus the matter would appear to be put off until the scheduled session on the first Monday of INSPECTING DAMAGE - Deputy Fire Chief William Downs and Firefighter Donald Babin examine damage in the headquarters of V.F.W. Post 2128 on the third floor of the Musgrove building, following the collapse of the roof Sunday noon. Fortunately, there was no one in the effected area at thd time the roof caved in. Broken water pipes, however, caused by the collapse, forced closing of all businesses in the Elm and Main street section of the building.

Tragedy Averted

Musgrove Building Roof Collapses

Near tragedy was averted by coincidence Sunday when a section of the roof of the Musgrove building in Elm Square collapsed shortly before 1 p.m.

The cause of the collapse is believed to have been due to a heavy deposit of water from recent rainfalls which could not run off due to plugged drains, thus the weight of the water caused the cave-in.

Fortunately no one was in the third floor area where the cave-in took place.

Rehearsals for a dance recital scheduled for Sunday had been postponed. The area most seriously effected was the V.F.W. Post 2128 headquarters next door to the dance studio.

The rooms of the VFW quarters were seriously damaged. There was no fire or explosion as near as public safety officials could determine.

The cave-in caused a rupture of the water lines in the building and the resultant loss of power.

Business establishments on the Elm and Main street side of the building have been closed since Sunday.

Joseph Dussault, operator of the dance studio on the third floor has made arrangements to continue his classes for the remainder of the year at the old Methuen railroad depot.

The Andover Finance Co., has moved its office, temporarily, to the Bike Shop on Post Office avenue.

The area has been roped off, due to falling bricks and a precarious situation with beams sticking out the top floor windows.

Building Inspector Arthur Peatman has ordered that the building remain closed until such time as the fallen beams and debris can be removed. This will have to be done with a crane, something not immediately available.

The building, 75 years old or more, houses several businesses on the ground floor, and offices, the VFW hall and dance studio on the upper floors.

The only place open at the time of the collapse was the Town Grill on the Main street side of the building. Persons there said the cave-in sounded like a cannon shot and that the building quivered.

Roughly one third of the northeast corner of the roof collapsed.

Properties of the VFW post were severely damaged, including desks and chairs. Guns were believed to be safe in a cabinet and re-

The building has been closed completely to the public until the debris can be removed.

Building Inspector Peatman said that any further decision regarding the building would have to come after the crane is obtained and the present damage assessed.

Elm Street Repairs Being Done By State

Repairs are being made to a section of Elm street from Washington Avenue to Wilson's corner in North Andover.

Workmen from the state department of public works have been in the area for the past week, making repairs to potholes and curbing along the state portion of the street.

Work has included the cleaning of gutters along the way of a mountainous pile of debris.

Shoulders of the road have been filled with gravel and the chipped portions of macadam paved with hot top.

Rep. Paul W. Cronin had asked Jacob Berkover, head of the Danvers office of state DPW, to take some action on the roadway, noting the condition it was in at the time. He noted that the particular roadway was among the last of the macadam type in the state and badly in need of attention.

The DPW crews have been working along the state-owned stretch of road for over a week and apparently giving the stretch of road a thorough sprucing up.

Brian T. Fitzpatrick

Air Force Prep School Graduate

Cadet Candidate Brian T. Fitzpatrick, son of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Fitzpatrick of 24 Bellevue Road, has graduated from the U. S. Air Force Academy Preparatory School.

During the 10-month course, conducted at the air academy near Colorado Springs, he received concentrated training to prepare him for the academy entrance examinations and to succeed as an academy cadet.

Included were military and physical training and intensive instruction in English and mathematics at college level.

Cadet Candidate Fitzpatrick will enter the academy in June and begin his four-year academic and military studies for a bachelor of science degree and commission in the U.S. Air Force.

Before entering the prep school, he served at Sheppard AFB, Texas.

He is a 1969 graduate of Andover High school.

West School To Be Ready

The addition to the West school is still promised for September opening.

The building committee and Town Manager J. Maynard Austin have been meeting with the contractor during the past week.

Austin said that the contractor insists he will be finished by the end of July and the 24 classrooms would be ready for fall opening.

Work was stalled by winter weather, but has been made up somewhat by the good spring weather.

The building, if opened on time in September, will relieve overcrowded conditions in the west section of town.

TOWN MEETING

October.

An item which may appear in that warrant could deal with the controversial lots in the Lowell Junction Industrial area.

Two lots there between Gillette and Reichhold are in tax title and being held by the selectmen. Conservation groups want the property turned over to the Conservation Commission. The selectmen have refused to release the lots.

There is speculation now that the selectmen may release a portion of the lots along the Shaw-shen River and retain the buildable property.

It is a possibility that the selectmen may decide to place 100 or more feet of river frontage in conservation commission hands.

It may be part of an article in the special town meeting, but as of the moment this is speculation, based on what the board members are thinking.

Hay Scales To Close Mondays

The Hay Scales Exchange will be closed on Mondays, starting June 15 until the Monday after Labor Day.

The hours at the shop will remain the same: 10 a.m. - 5 p.m. - Tuesday through Saturday.

There are many new articles of great interest, including a new and convenient home-made casserole selection for the freezer to accommodate unexpected company or emergencies.

HONORED. William A. Doherty, a school committeeman for over 35 years, who retired from the post this year, was honored by hundreds of friends at a testimonial Tuesday night at Briarcliff. Among the many awards presented to him in tribute for his many years of service was a plaque from Andover Council Knights of Columbus by John Smith. James Sullivan, center, looks on. His brother James also presented him with a new fur cap, traditional winter garb for the popular member of the community.

Notes About Town

Robert McQuade, new director of public works, is expected to begin his duties today. He informed Town Manager J. Maynard Austin this week that he was completing his duties with Camp, Dresser and McKee and expected to assume his new post on Thursday.

Furniture for the new public safety center is still lying in wait in Boston. A Teamsters union labor dispute is holding up delivery thus the delay in the opening of the safety center. It is anticipated now that the building may be ready for occupancy by early July.

Bids were received this week for the installation of lights for the softball field in Recreation Park. The proposals, however, were above the appropriation. Lowest bid was $12,000. Town meeting approved $10,000 for the project. The matter is under study by the town manager and recreation department.

Negotiations between the fire department, public works department and town manager are continuing. Both have been at the collective bargaining table since last September, with no agreement reached as yet.

The Andover High track team, after gaining all honors available in the state, will compete in the New England Schoolboy Track meet Saturday at the Eugene V. Lovely stadium.

Plans Final Activities

Final activities for students at West Junior-High school will begin on Friday at the school, when the ninth graders will be guests of the Student Government at a buffet and class dance to be held in the school courtyard from 8 to 11:15 p.m.

Appropriate attire for girls will be informal such as would be worn to church or a house party. A regular sports or suit jacket would be considered appropriate for the boys.

Monday morning, following an awards assembly, the Student Government and faculty have planned a ninth grade party at Crane's Beach, Ipswich. Students should bring their own lunch. Plans are to return to Andover between 4:30 and 5 p.m.

Tuesday at 10:15 a.m., the final assembly will be held in the auditorium. Parents and friends of ninth grade students have been invited to attend.

15 Andover Graduates At P.A.

Fifteen Andover residents will be among the 266 seniors in the graduating class at Phillips Academy Friday, June 12. They will receive their diplomas in ceremonies scheduled by tradition to be held in the great quadrangle in front of Samuel Phillips Hall. If the weather holds fair, the procession will form in Flagstaff Court, in an adjoining quadrangle, and move to the commencement area. In the event of rain, the exercises will be held in Cochran Chapel.

John M. Kemper, Phillips headmaster, will be the only speaker at the commencement exercises. Later, he and Donald H. McLean, Jr., class of 1928 and president of the board of trustees, will distribute diplomas on the great lawn near the Addison Gallery. Again, in the event of rain, the diplomas will be distributed in the athletic department cage.

Commencement week opened last night with the annual stag dinner for seniors and faculty members at Borden Gymnasium. Today at 7 o'clock, parents, guests and faculty members are to attend a buffet supper in Flagstaff court. Later, they will attend the senior class play, a light collection of skits, in George Washington Hall.

The Andover residents in the senior class are John Waldemar Danforth, 28 Greenwood Road; Charles Martin Eccles, 49 Highland Road; John Charles Eichner, 17 Lincoln St.; James Maurice Gillan, Jr., 283 Salem St.; Michael Dempsey Kannan, 9 Sherborne St.; John Alan Korba, 55 Lucerne Drive; Joseph Anthony Leonardi, 6 Ayer St.; Coles Hunter McBee, 23 Woodland Road; Daniel Dretzka Olivier, Jr., 169 South Main St.; Albert Stephen Pieters, 25 Phillips St.; Matthew Paul Ristuccia, 127 Holt Road; David D. Sagaser, 50 Chestnut St.; Peter Alan Sorota, Pearson Farm; Christopher Reid

Vaughan, 1 Hidden Road; and Charles Allen Willand, 92 Elm St.

Charles (Cobber) Eccles, an honor student, played varsity soccer, hockey and lacrosse. He plans to enter Brown.

John A. Korba, also an honor student, played varsity soccer and squash. He plans to enter Tufts.

A. Stephen (Steve) Pieters, another honor student, was active in drama, choir and the Madrigal Society. This spring he played the lead in "Carnival," the school spring musical. He will enter the School of Speech at Northwestern University.

Matthew Ristuccia won the Dean K. Webster history prize and was active in swimming, tennis, drama and music. He plans to attend school in England next year before entering Princeton in the fall of 1971.

David Sagaser, an honor student, was a national merit finalist, winner of the Tower Prize and played two years of varsity hockey. He plans to enter Brown.

Peter Sorota was an all-round athlete and captain of the spring track team.

What Does the CO-OP Mean by

"The Dignity of Real Work"? (No. 4)

Work is what a person brings to the job. A sense of dignity is the priceless reward which he takes away with him for a job well done.

Not all work is well done. Whether work is well done or not depends not on the job but on the attitude which the worker brings to the job.

Work callously done brings its own punishment. The careless worker develops a sourness of attitude which impoverishes his soul. He condemns himself to a dismal world of his own creation.

On the other hand, the worker who does his very best takes pride in his work and develops a dignity of spirit which is beyond price. His soul is enriched with the joy of a job well done.

In an economic world with a built-in system of spiritual rewards and punishments, fortunate is the man with the insight to perceive that only he is happy who knows the pride and dignity which comes from doing one's very best.

The CO-OP is not the only place where youth can learn pride of workmanship. But under the efficient supervision of Ray Fuller, our general manager, we like to think that we too help to make boys into workers deserving of the rewards of dignity of spirit.

The Red Sox notched two more victories in Sunday night, and have just three regular season games remaining.

The league-leading Red Sox victories came on Sunday over the Yankees, 16-5, a triumph over the White Sox.

The Twins remained in the second place position with an 11-2 victory over the Yankees, while the Tigers posted an upset win over the Indians.

Rain washed out the game between the Indians and the White Sox at a later date.

Several fine performances were noted last week, as a two-out of three-hitters for the Red Sox were thrown.

Whichever team wins the American League pennant, Dick Neal's performance in the League championship series are promising.

Red Sox 16, Yankees 5. Red Sox scored 10 runs in the high innings against the hitting Yankees. The Red Sox notched three runs in the third, four in the fourth, and then seven in the fifth inning.

Ken Lofredo led the Red Sox to a 4-2 victory over the Yankees, hitting at the Yankees and walked in the third, fourth, and fifth innings.

Ken also led the Red Sox to a 3-0 victory over the Yankees, hitting Steve Wilk and two doubles and a home run across four runs.

By Rick Harrison

The first-place Red Sox picked up two more victories this week to move within striking distance of the Andover American Little League title.

The Red Sox now lead the defending Town Champion Twins by two games through action last Sunday night, and both teams have just three regular season games remaining.

The league-leaders' brace of victories came on a 16-1 romp over the Yankees, and a 6-1 triumph over the White Sox.

The Twins remained in contention with an 11-2 pasting of the Yankees, while the third-place Tigers posted an unusual 9-0 forfeit win over the Indians.

Rain washed out a scheduled game between the White Sox and Indians. The tilt will be made up at a later date.

Several fine pitching performances were turned in this week, as a two-hitter, a pair of three-hitters and a four-hitter were thrown.

Whichever team wins in the American League will meet Manager Dick Neal's perennial National League champion Cardinals. The Cards are presently undefeated.

Red Sox 16, Yankees 1 -- The Red Sox scored in every inning to run up the highest single-game total against the usually heavy-hitting Yankees. The winners notched three runs in the first frame, one in the second, one in the third, four more in the fourth and then seven big runs in the fifth inning.

Ken Loffredo lifted his hurling record to 4-2 by tossing a four-hitter at the Yanks. He fanned nine and walked just one.

Ken also led the Sox 12-hit attack with 3-for-4 and five RBIs. Hot-hitting Steve Wilkins hammered out two doubles and a triple to drive across four runs.

Richard Rosetti added 2-for-4 and two RBIs for the Red Sox, while Paul Rosetti and Labeeb Abboud belted two-baggers.

Jay Doherty took it on the chin as the losing pitcher. Darryl Gustafson cracked a double for the Yanks' only extra base hit. Singles were added by Thom Lawler, Tom Sambuco and Bobby Hoelzel.

Twins 11, Yankees 2 -- Lefty Glenn Verrette of the Twins fired a three-hitter to raise his pitching ledger to 4-2 on the season. Glenn also set a seasonal high of 16 strikeouts for one game, eclipsing the previous mark of 15 set by teammate Bill Alexander and Glenn himself.

It was Verrette's second three-hitter. He has also twirled a no-hitter, two one-hitters and a two-hitter.

Glenn also led the charge at the plate with a three-run triple, a double and a single. Lefthander Rhett Mundy was also 3-for-4, with a double and one RBI.

Bill Alexander had a perfect night at the plate with 4-for-4, including two doubles, two singles and three RBIs. Mark Conlon lashed a two-bagger for the Twins and Dave Rosenberg stroked a single.

Thom Lawler was the Yankees' losing hurler. Kenny LaFleur, Dave Bronson and Lawler rapped out singles for Manager Ed LaFleur's Yanks.

Manager Charlie Conlon's Twins erupted for seven runs and five hits in the fourth inning to bust open a tight game.

Red Sox 6, White Sox 1 -- Richard Rosetti brought his pitching record to 4-0 by fashioning a three-hitter to stymie the White Sox. He whiffed six batters along the six-inning route.

Losing hurler Chris Crampton was the victim of some bad luck. He tossed a two-hitter and fanned eight Red Sox hitters in a fine effort.

Steve Wilkins was again the slugger for the Red Sox, clubbing a two-run double and an RBI single for both of the winners' hits and three RBIs.

Crampton hammered out a brace of doubles and Timmy Brownlie stroked an RBI single for the White Sox.

Defensive stalwarts for the winners were Ken Loffredo at shortstop, and Paul Lockwood at second base.

The Red Sox notched two runs in the first, one in the second and three more in the fifth inning.

Tigers 9, Indians 0 -- This was the first forfeit within recent memory, as the Indians could only field seven men of the nine required. The victory for Manager Maury LaPointe's Tigers upped their slate to 7-5.

Four season's series were wrapped up this week. The Red Sox completed a three-game sweep of the Yankees and White Sox with their 16-1 and 6-1 triumphs. The Twins' 11-2 win over the Yanks gave them a 2-1 edge in that series, while the Tigers' 9-0 victory over the Indians gave the Tigers that series, 2-1.

This Week -- A key game was played last night, after TOWNSMAN presstime, when the Red Sox and Tigers clashed at the South School diamond. The remainder of this week's schedule is: Tonight - White Sox - Yankees; Friday - Indians - Red Sox; Saturday - White Sox - Twins; Monday - Indians - Yankees; Tuesday - White Sox - Tigers; Wednesday - Red Sox - Twins.

Barring a playoff, next Wednesday's Red Sox vs. Twins clash should conclude the regular season. Following will be the league playoff and then the inter-league playoff.

Pitching stars of the week -- Glenn Verrette, Richard Rosetti, Ken Loffredo, Chris Crampton.

Hitting stars of the week -- Steve Wilkins, Glenn Verrette, Rhett Mundy, Bill Alexander, Ken Loffredo.

School Library To Be Open

One feature of the Andover Summer School, secondary level, will be that the school library will be open from 8:15 a.m. until 12:15 p.m. during the days of the summer session June 29 through Aug. 7. These hours were devised to assist parents and students who might wish to arrive early and stay late for particular classes and for the problems of transportation. Period A runs from 8:45 a.m. to 10:15 a.m., while period B runs from 10:30 a.m. to 12 noon daily. The library will not be open for evening classes.

Parents and interested students are reminded that registration forms and summer school brochures are available at all Andover secondary school guidance offices or by calling James Murphy, principal, at 475-8440 Ext. 17. The decision date for canceling course offerings will be Friday of this week, June 12. As previously announced the school reserves the right to cancel any course for which there is inadequate enrollment or the inavailability of a competent instructor. The public is reminded that enrollment this week is needed to save some courses from cancellation. Enrollment in remaining courses, however, will continue until the first day of summer school, June 29.

O.E.S. Planning Barbeque On Saturday

Andover Chapter 187 Order of the Eastern Star will hold their annual chicken barbeque on Saturday, June 13 from 4:30 to 7 p.m. at the home of Edna Abbott, 45 Third St., North Andover. Tickets are $1.50 for adults and 75¢ for children under 12.

Reservations can be made by calling Margaret Bove at 683-3821 or Thelma Whiting at 475-5895. Tickets may also be obtained from any member of the Ways and Means Committee.

The event is open to the public, and tickets will be on sale the night of the barbeque.

Miss Parson Is Graduate

An Andover student was among 81 seniors who were graduated from Beaver Country Day School in Chestnut Hill on Friday, June 5.

Congresswoman Margaret M. Heckler, 10th District, was the speaker at the commencement exercises in Bradley Hall on the school campus.

The local student is Esther Morse Parson, Jr., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen P. Parson of 104 Hidden Road. A student at Beaver for three years, Miss Parson will attend the University of Denver next year.

She was treasurer of the Community Service Club in her senior year, as well as writing for the Literary Magazine. Her other activities included: Luncheon Club, two years; Drama Club, two years; Hockey team, two years; Lacrosse team, one year; and as a volunteer to the Walter E. Fernald State School for retarded children in her senior year.

Health Exams Required For School

All students entering kindergarten, grades 3, 7, and 10 are required to have a physical examination and all students who will be participating in any varsity sport are required to have a yearly physical examination according to the regulations of the Andover School Department.

Physical exam forms have been distributed to all students for the above grades, and to all students in the Junior and Senior High schools.

The family physician has a more comprehensive knowledge of the students physical condition and should do the exam, if possible. The school physician will do physical exams on students who do not return a form from the family physician within a reasonable length of time.

The school requests a physical and dental report at the beginning of each school year.

Kindergarten physicals are due on the first day of school.

Varsity sports physicals are due on the first day of practice. For the sake of your doctor, please don't wait until the week before school opens to make your appointment.

To Present Production At Bancroft

A dramatic play, "Charlie and the Chocolate Factory," from the popular children's book by Roald Dahl will be presented by the Drama Club of the Bancroft School, June 16 at 1:45 p.m. in the school auditorium.

Mrs. Isadore Gross is the director with Mrs. Charles Liponis, production assistant. The following children will participate: Judy Reynolds, Betsy Eccles, Cheryl Joyal, Carolyn O'Hara, Dennis O'Meara, Richard O'Hara, Paul Keefe, Susan Larochelle, Joe Caffrey, Liz Chivers, Cyril Lane, Joshua Orlan, Mary Ann Powers, Doreen Powers, Tommy Reynolds, Merideth McGoff, Terres Unsoeld, Mark Liponis, Meg Ober, Lori Gross, Scott Pascucci, Chris Mackie, Lisa Spiegel, Holly Luscutoff, and Lisa Cheyette.

Major Fields Selected

Andover residents, students at Bowdoin College, Brunswick, Maine, have selected their major fields of study.

J. Daniel Hatch, son of Atty. and Mrs. Charles G. Hatch, 3 Appletree Lane, will major in religion.

Julian S. Kaiser, Jr., son of Dr. and Mrs. Julian S. Kaiser, 238 South Main St., will concentrate in art.

Frederick N. Nowell, III, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fredrick N. Nowell, 23 Cheever Circle, will major in the classics.

Completes First Year At Academy

Coast Guard Cadet Third Class Paul M. Russell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis H. Russell of 2 Yale Road, completed his first year of study at the Coast Guard Academy at New London, Conn.

This summer he will spend about a month and a half aboard a Coast Guard cutter on a training cruise to Europe learning the fundamentals of shipboard routine. The remainder of the summer will be taken up by training ashore and about three weeks leave before classes resume late in August.

Pre-Kindergarten Program Debuts

A new educational service for the community will make its debut this summer in the form of a summer pre-kindergarten program for selected Andover children.

The pre-kindergarten opportunity, which is limited to an enrollment of 35 pupils, grew out of the several "previews" of kindergarten offered to all 1970 kindergarteners late this winter. Professional observation of these play sessions was one basis for selecting potential pupils for the summer program, which will run from July 20 - Aug. 28, Monday through Friday mornings.

Mrs. Grace Jamison of Dascumb Road brings experience as an elementary, nursery school and Montessori nursery school teacher to her position as director of Andover's summer pre-kindergarten program. She explained its origin and purpose to the TOWNSMAN.

"We have identified children whom we think will be far more likely to experience success from the start in kindergarten, if they can have some very purposeful preparation. That's what the purpose of the pre-kindergarten program is: to help such a child become developed in certain broad skill areas so that he can function successfully and happily right away in kindergarten."

We all know that kids come to kindergarten on all sorts of different levels in various skill or developmental areas, Mrs. Jamison explains. A few find it a pretty overwhelming experience at the beginning, if they see themselves as far behind most of the children in any area -- and this feeling itself can hamper their further success.

They may be good at running and jumping, but they may have done very little that demands the finer muscle control, such as manipulating crayons; some are very restless and have always been so "on the go" that it takes weeks to be able to sit down for more than five minutes.

One might angrily fight the social limitations of school. Another may lack the experience of being part of a group of children, or taking directions from anyone except his mother. A few have strong fears and anxieties to overcome before they can cope successfully with school, while some slow-maturing children are generally less well-developed in all areas, and the summer pre-kindergarten experience may help parents and teachers decide whether this will be the right September to start kindergarten.

Some of the children registered for the fall have obvious needs, Mrs. Jamison said, for directed physiomotor activities or for further development in the language skills, or the perceptual skills (such as matching shapes) that are so necessary for success in school.

The summer pre-kindergarten program is designed to give its invited clientele boosts in these areas in what its director calls "a carefully prepared environment, in which everything is picked out, set up and planned for a specific purpose, to expand the child's awareness and help him to develop in as many areas as possible in this short a time."

The pupil teacher ratio will be an enviable one for the invited children whose parents take advantage of the opportunity. A staff of three professional teachers will work with the group, assisted by four aides, from 9 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. each weekday morning during the late summer session.

Mrs. Jamison said the late summer scheduling of the pre-kindergarten program underlined its preparatory nature. "It may be an inconvenient time for families in some ways," she said, "but it is very important for these children to have the program close to the opening of kindergarten, for retention of the skills developed."

The central school office is accepting applications for teacher's aides for the six week program now. Mrs. Jamison said that there are no credential requirements for aides, that college students would be eligible, and anyone with an interest in art and/or music would be an especial help.

Two Receive Conn. Degrees

Connecticut College, New London, Conn., awarded degrees to two Andover girls during commencement exercises held Sunday, June 7 on the campus.

Miss Barbara L. Boles, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Schulenburg, 17 Barrington Drive. An Art History major, Miss Boles has been a Dean's list student, a member of the college chorus, and a dorm aide. She served as a volunteer worker for Learned House, a private settlement house and studied at Williams College her first semester senior year.

A graduate of Niskayuna High School in Schenectady, N.Y., Miss Boles will spend three months studying in Switzerland after graduation.

Miss Pamela Gail Pawlik, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Pawlik of 12 George St.

Miss Pawlik, a graduate of Andover High School, majored in history.

Announces Democratic Candidacy

Former Representative James P. Hurrell of North Andover has announced his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for State Representative from the 13th Essex District, which includes the town of North Andover and Precincts 1, 5, and 6 in Andover.

Mr. Hurrell was educated in the North Andover school system, Newman Preparatory School, Suffolk University and is presently attending Massachusetts Military Academy. Mr. Hurrell has also completed a course in legislative and parliamentary procedure conducted by the State Department of Education.

When elected in 1966, Mr. Hurrell was the youngest legislator to ever serve the Commonwealth. During his term of office, he served as a member of the Committee on Education and The Committee on Water Resources and Water Supply. The former representative was also vice-chairman of The Special Commission on Solid Waste Disposal which was formed due to legislation which he filed.

In his two year term of office, Mr. Hurrell's voting record was 96.5 percent of 843 recorded roll call votes.

Mr. Hurrell, who is also a former Senate Aid, is presently the owner of James P. Hurrell Realty in North Andover. He is a past chairman of the North Andover Cancer Drive and a member of many local civic and fraternal organizations.

The candidate is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley J. Hurrell of 82 Saunders St., North Andover.

Orientation Program Set

An orientation program for the parents of present ninth graders is planned at the high school for Thursday evening, June 11 at 8 p.m.

The program will be held in the large group room at the top of the entrance stairs.

Trip Camp Events Are Scheduled

The Andover YMCA will conduct a trip camp for boys and girls 8 - 12 years of age this summer. The program will begin June 29 and each week, for a minimum of six weeks, trips will be scheduled on Monday, Wednesday and Friday. Enrollees will meet at the YMCA at 9 a.m. and the program will conclude each day at 4 p.m.

Interested boys and girls must register during the week beginning June 17 and may, thereafter, specifically sign up each week for the three trips of the following week if they wish to participate. Information sheets with full particulars are available at the YMCA.

Walter J. Kimball of the YMCA staff will direct the program. Scheduled for the first week, beginning June 29, are the following three programs: a beach trip to the Hampton Beach Reservation, a trip to Bear Brook Reservation in New Hampshire and a trip to Benson's Animal Farm in Hudson, N.H.

Included among the later offerings will be a trip to a Red Sox baseball game, a deep sea fishing trip, a day spent at the Lawrence YMCA Day Camp where all facilities will be turned over to the group for a day, a similar outing at Adventure Island (the Haverhill YMCA Day Camp site), a trip to Camp Lawrence on Lake Winnepesaukee including a boat ride on the lake and swimming off Bear Island, and many other interesting trips.

Girl Scouts Hold Annual Camporee

Twenty Girl Scout troops of the Shawsheen Valley neighborhood, encompassing the towns of Andover and North Andover, recently enjoyed their Sixth Annual Camporee at Camp Maude Eaton, Pomp's Pond. There was a total of 550 participants, including Juniors, Cadettes, Seniors and their leaders.

Activities included a Sing Along Friday evening, a Scout's Own Saturday evening with the theme "Our Indian Heritage" presented by the Cadettes, and an open house for Brownies and parents. At this time, each troop site had a display of their work on a badge.

Those shown were First Aid, Drama, My Community, Indian Lore, Observer, Outdoor Cook and Troop Camper.

Many Brownies were invited by their sister troops to stay for supper on Saturday.

An award for the most outstanding campsite was presented by last year's winner, Junior Troop 63 of Central School, this year the winner was Junior Troop 43 of Sanborn School, Mrs. William McCarthy, leader.

A Goal Reached

Three years ago, a group of Andover people took a rather auspicious and, in some ways, controversial step. They gathered together to raise funds and institute A Better Chance program.

The program was designed to afford a public school education to underprivileged youths, some Negro and from deprived areas.

Andover was the second community in the nation to take on such a program, following in the steps of Hanover, N. H.

It was a bold step, but one which has been rewarding to those with the foresight to take such a step, and to those young people who have received an education from Andover High school.

Andover is now joined by 15 other communities across the nation, including North Andover and Amherst in Massachusetts.

That the program has been rewarding is evidenced by the fact that 70 per cent of the students are on the honor roll in the college section of the high school.

The graduates have been accepted at some of the top American colleges and universities, Harvard, Dartmouth, Tufts, Bowdoin, to name but a few.

Some of the participants, Van DeBose and Leon Sharpe in particular within the past two weeks, have brought fame to Andover High through their athletic prowess, leading the track teams to state titles.

The boys have been exemplary in other athletic endeavors, as well.

ABC has been fortunate in its initial three years, to have had the assistance of Mr. and Mrs. William Deacon who have served as resident directors.

They will take leave this year, Mr. Deacon leaving his high school biology position to go on a cruise with his wife and three children.

They will be replaced by Mr. and Mrs. Jerome F. Lake. Mrs. Lake is a first grade teacher in the Beverly School system.

Next fall, among the incoming students, will be two American Indians, another innovation for the Andover program.

The ABC committee is now completing its first three years, a goal successfully reached by some dedicated people.

The committee is anxious to continue the program for another three years and will be seeking financial support.

One goal has been reached, another lies ahead, with the hope that success will again be achieved.

The Flag

Sunday will be a rather special day. It is an annual observance, but this year, it seems a little more important.

Sunday will be Flag Day — a day set aside to honor our National Emblem.

Somehow, among some malcontents in our society, it has become fashionable to discredit the Red, White and Blue our nation so prides

Desecration of the flag has been rampant of late among the students and youthful rioters

Such actions violate all reason in a troubled America.

Despite dissent, in view of adverse opinion about foreign involvement, persons should still retain respect for a free America.

The American Flag has been borne into many battles to preserve the freedom and liberty which all Americans enjoy.

For its safety, thousands have sacrificed their lives to keep the brilliant red, the pure white and the heavenly blue waving freely over our nation.

Not just on Sunday but for all days, respect for the flag and for which it stands, "one nation, under God, with Liberty and Justice for all."

Safety

It's that time of year again.

School is out and a reminder to motorists to be aware of the youthful exuberance is in order.

When school officially ends for the year early next week, it is a stern warning that exercise in safety is a must, not only for motorists but for young people alike.

Summer time is a joyful time, but it also presents hazards.

Youngsters frivolously ride their bicycles from time to time, unmindful of the world around them.

Adults intent on vacation time pleasure, or a day or two of relaxation, sometimes tend to forget the rules of highway, water or recreational safety.

We hope the lazy, hazy days of summer just ahead will be filled with fun and relaxation and that our columns will be free from reports of accidents

With safety as the byword, vacation time will be filled with the joys of relaxation.

Off The Top
Of The Desk

Some of the younger generation may not believe you, but you can bridge the generation gap by informing them that this is the golden anniversary year of radio.

Why some of them may even be shocked to learn that the instrument was not a household item only a half century ago.

They were born in television days, not in the days of the broadcasting of such programs as "The $64 Question," or the Bob Hope and Jack Benny, not to mention Fred Allen, Kay Kaiser and his College of Musical Knowledge, etc.

The current generation, as far as broadcasting is concerned, is probably of the feeling that if they can't see it they don't believe. But those blaring transistors with the rock and roll, or whatever emanating from them, were once the plugged in home family entertainment center.

Have we seen the last of Jim Lonborg.

He has gone from a broken leg in a skiing accident to arm trouble the past few years.

In an exhibition game in Montreal this week, he was bombed by the Expos and sent back to Boston for medical attention.

It would appear the Sox had better seek additional pitching help for an already arm-injury plagued staff.

The first bear to be killed by a car in Massachusetts, to the knowledge of the Massachusetts Division of Fisheries and Game, was recorded May 27 at 7:15 p.m. in the west bound lane of the Massachusetts Turnpike in the Russell area. The animal weighed 100 pounds.

Approximately two hours later a second bear was struck, this time on the Mohawk trail four miles west of Florida. This Bruin, however, was more fortunate, apparently, as it ambled off into the woods to recover.

The latest membership count of the Massachusetts Teachers Association (MTA) places the largest employee organization in the state at the 44,042 level as of June 1, 1970, according to figures released by Dr. William H. Hebert, executive secretary-treasurer of the MTA.

The 44,042 figure represents an increase of 3,289 members since last year at the same date.

Of the total amount some 20,144 now belong to the organization's national affiliate, the National Education Association (NEA).

The MTA is made up of 323 local associations throughout Massachusetts.

Now you can buy milk in bags. That's right -- plastic bags which store easily in the refrigerator.

H. P. Hood and Sons has been marketing the plastic pitcher-bags in the Springfield and Holyoke areas and delivering five-quart bags in the Agawam branch.

The plastic bags are inserted into a pitcher and the seal broken for pouring.

The five-quart concept was developed due to indications that the average home delivery consisted of at least that amount. The single quart bags are contained in an outer plastic bag.

Age of Aquarius -- not yet! If you think, as the song says, that it's the dawning of the Age of Aquarius, you're jumping the gun a bit, according to the Museum of Science.

Astronomically speaking, the earth won't be entering the Constellation of Aquarius for a good 600 years yet, says John M. Carr, director of the Hayden Planetarium at Boston's Museum of Science.

At present, on the first day of spring, the sun is in the constellation of Pisces the fish. Aquarius, the water carrier, and Pisces are two of the 12 constellations collectively called the Zodiac, the path across the sky followed by the sun, moon, and planets.

Because of a very slow wobble of the earth called precession, the place in the sky occupied by the sun on the first day of spring, the vernal equinox, is slowly moving westward and will eventually reach Aquarius. Its arrival there, astrologers say, will usher in an intellectual period of change and brotherly love.

Perhaps, suggests Carr, today's young people are impatient for this event to occur, as we have already spent over 1500 years in the Age of Pisces.

What Our Readers Say

To the Editor of the TOWNSMAN
Three little girls from Andover have been given the opportunity to enjoy two weeks of supervised fun and instruction at Camp-Y-Wood as recipients of camperships donated by the Andover Benevolent Protective Order of Elks, No. 2198.

This is just another of the many instances where the Elks have provided extras for the health and comfort of residents in the community.

It is a pleasure to publicly express my appreciation for their kindness and sincere co-operation.

To the Editor of the TOWNSMAN
May I call to your attention a most dangerous situation in Andover.

I witnessed a near tragedy as I walked from the post office up to the parking area of the adjacent business building.

A gentleman was backing his car down the drive. A young woman with a stroller and two youngsters were right behind the car. The woman was actually grazed along with the stroller. Had this man not stopped at that moment, to put his car in forward that woman and children could have been crushed. The man was never even aware of what happened.

I wish to make this known, as I find this area to be most dangerous, both to the motorist and the pedestrian.

The pedestrians, walking on the sidewalk, continue to walk across this parking area without realizing it is not a stationary parking lot, but is extremely busy with cars coming in and out every minute.

The motorist that parks there is also in an extremely dangerous situation as he backs down trying to look on both his left and right side at the same time, which is impossible to do. As we all know an accident can happen in one split second.

May I suggest, before a situation arises to warrant immediate action on this area, that signs be posted -- for the pedestrian to be aware that they are crossing a section of the sidewalk, (that is not a sidewalk at all) but a very busy roadway.

Mrs. Pat Anderson
61 Argilla Road

(Editor's Note: The writer's point is valid. The merchants in the business building are tenants of Danton Realty Trust which owns the structure and received a permit from town authorities to develop the area as it now stands. In order to obtain the permit, sufficient parking spaces were required to meet the building code, thus the particular problem.)

Memorial Hall Library

Where To Go

Wherever your plans take you this summer the library hopes you will stop in for a guide-book or a background book on the area you intend to visit. Will it be France? Don't miss Ian Dunlop's new book "The Chateaux of the Loire" which will prepare you ahead of time for the magnificent edifices of kings and dukes where history was made from the time of the feudal fortress to the baroque palace. If you are headed for England there is a fascinating book by Garry Hogg called "Odd Aspects of England." Here you may read about and see photographs of curious constructions, windmills, bridges, dovecotes, oasthouses, all of great interest for people who love the English countryside. "Terry's Guide to the Caribbean" and "A Guide to Mexican Art" are here in the library if your travels take you in this direction.

Summer Hours

Don't forget that Memorial Hall Library will be closed on Saturdays beginning June 20 and will not be open on Saturdays until September 12. During the summer the Children's Room will be open and staffed during the evening. In

Past Officers Honored

The Andona Society held its annual dinner meeting recently at Briarcliff. The reading of the annual reports indicated that Andona has had its most successful financial year to date.

During its 18 years as an organization, the Society has given nearly $30,000 to groups working with the youth of Andover. These donations include two scholarships given annually to graduating Andover High seniors which now amount to $1,000 each, a number of summer campships, and donations of equipment to the Andover Y.

In addition, the society has supported youth athletic groups and a number of other projects needing financial support which arise during any given year, and this year gave a large donation to Reality, Inc. to be used to help Andover youth having drug or emotional problems.

A gift was presented outgoing president, Mrs. Wilfred Mackie in appreciation for her tireless efforts on behalf of the Society during her two years in office.

New officers were elected for the coming year. They include Mrs. Arthur F. Muldoon, president; Mrs. Richard Coombs, vice president; Mrs. Leslie Bartow, secretary; and Mrs. Robert Lucy, treasurer. Serving on the board next year will be Mrs. Charles Cappetta, ways and means; Mrs. Charles E. Fleming, meetings; Mrs. Robert Gable, public relations and records; Mrs. Brewster Seewald, civic; Mrs. Francis J. Hill, membership; Mrs. James Stamas, points; and Mrs. Richard Savrann, property.

LIBRARY

other words, the entire library will be open from 9 to 9 every day, Monday through Friday, all summer.

Opportunities

There will be no formal reading program for children this summer, but the Children's Room staff is encouraging its young people to keep track of the reading they do and list the titles in a reading folder which will be available at the library as soon as school is out.

The summer film program for children in grades 3 through 7 begins on June 18. The movies will be shown at 3 in the afternoon in the Central Elementary School Auditorium. There is no charge for admission, but each child must present his library card at the door. Parents are welcome to stay for the film provided they sit at the rear of the auditorium.

The younger children will have their entertainment at the library on Tuesday afternoons. All those in grades 1 through 3 are invited to watch film-strips beginning at 2 o'clock. The first afternoon for this program is June 23.

Language Clubs Have Banquet

The French and Latin Clubs of East Junior High School climaxed their year's program with their annual banquet which featured a Roman menu "from eggs to apples" with roast pig (ham) and salad. French pastries and "wine" added a Gallic touch. The wine tasting ceremony was performed by Peter Barry and George Doran.

Guests included Dr. Kenneth Seifert, superintendent of schools, Mrs. Dorothy Partridge, principal, retiring faculty members Mrs. Helen Parker and Mrs. Helen Monell, accompanied by her husband, Frederick Monell, Gerald Desjardin, high school French teacher, and faculty representatives from all the academic departments of East Junior High.

Entertainment included Latin Club songs, an original ritualistic dance to the Goddess Vesta by Nancee Chalifour, short plays in French and Latin, and the French Can-Can a spirited performance by a group of sixteen eighth and ninth grade girls.

Among the many costumed guests were Laurie Marshall reminiscent of a Renoir painting and George Adornato in authentic Roman garb, who won first prizes.

According to tradition eighth grade honor students are invited each year to be the "slaves" who serve the guests. Those honored this year were Charles Galbiati, Kim Liponis, Nicola Pangonis, Libby Seifel, Katy Gass, and Marleah Ramsdell, Jeannine Murphy, Cheryl Foster, Beth Viehman.

Under the direction of home economics teachers, Mrs. Emma Louise Danforth and Mrs. Paula Gaynor, the eighth grade girls in the cooking classes helped prepare the tempting banquet.

Several members of the clubs, under the direction of the art teachers, painted murals which served as background for tables covered with light blue cloths and decorated with bowls of fruit and flowers.

President of the Latin Club, Betsey Young, announced the program, while French Club president Jane Caswell directed her groups numbers. Mrs. Suzanne Coates and Mrs. Carolyn Warrington of the foreign language department supervised the preparations.

Pool Program Registration Now Open

Registrations for the Andover YMCA swimming instruction program in private pools this summer will open Wednesday at 9 a.m. at the YMCA, 10 Brook St.

The third such summer program will provide swimming instruction on all levels, beginners through advanced, with both YMCA and Red Cross programs being used.

Certified instructors will direct each class assisted by Water Safety Instructors' Aides.

The YMCA has 20 private backyard pools which have been made available by their owners for the program which is expected to serve over 500 enrollees. The pools are located in many sections of the town offering many choices both as regards location and time. Most of the classes will be scheduled for boys and girls 8 - 12 years of age, but a few will be limited to children 6 and 7 years of age, 4 - 5 years of age and women. All classes will be small permitting instruction on an individual basis.

Most of the classes will begin during the week of June 29 and most will meet once a week. The YMCA office will be open from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday beginning June 17 on a first come basis.

August Wedding Planned

Mrs. Mary D. Vergados, 968 North Street, Tewksbury, announces the engagement of her daughter, Karen Sunday, to Mr. Frank Ronald Di Pietro, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Di Pietro, Nashua, N.H.

Miss Vergados, daughter of the late Mr. Vasilios D. Vergados, attended Andover schools and Fisher Junior College.

Mr. Di Pietro attended Nashua school and is a student at Bentley College.

An August 1 wedding is planned.

Free Church Pre-School Ends Season

Mrs. Thayer Warshaw, teacher-director of the Free Church Co-op Pre-school has been shepherding the students around this spring on trips to the Children's Museum, Boston, Red Oak Farm, and a tour of Bon Secours Hospital.

The school will close its 12th year on Friday, June 12 with a family picnic at the home of Mrs. Robert Lange.

An experiment of conversational French lessons were offered this year by parent Hale Sturges. The program proved to be a huge success when Mr. Sturges took advantage of the children's innate ability to mimic, and spoke and sang with them through a hand puppet named "Pierre."

Mr. Sturges felt that the most important objectives served in his thrice weekly classes were not only that the children became aware of other ways of speaking, but also the hope that they have gained an indelible interest in learning to speak a foreign language.

To Manage Branch Bank

William E. Moriarty, president of the Lawrence Cooperative Bank, recently announced the appointment of Miss Evelyn Bernard as manager of the bank's new Branch Office located at 4 Main St., Andover. The branch is due to open at the end of June.

Miss Bernard was born in Lawrence and is a graduate of St. Patrick's Grammar School and Lawrence High School and continued her education at Pembroke College, Providence, R. I. Miss Bernard has been associated with the Lawrence Cooperative Bank for six years in the mortgage department and recently completed banking courses at the American Savings and Loan Institute, Chicago, Ill.

Engagement Announced

Mrs. Rosina Chatting and Mr. Fredrick Martin of Surrey, England, announce the engagement of their daughter Andree E. Martin to Dennis V. Porter, son of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Porter of 54 Union St.

Miss Martin was born and educated in Caterham, Surrey, England, graduating from Caterham Secondary Modern School. She is currently employed by the K. P. Thompson Co. here.

Mr. Porter was born and educated in Andover and graduated from Bryant-McIntosh Junior College. He is presently employed by Marriott In-Flite Caterers as manufacturer of equipment and supplies for their Northeast Airlines account.

Three area residents were graduates of the Chandler School for Women in Boston in May.

Cynthia J. Orlando, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Orlando, 65 Stevens St., a graduate of Andover High school, specialized in the executive course at the school and was clerical editor of the yearbook.

Margaret M. Lynch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward M. Lynch, 31 Wild Rose Drive, also a graduate of Andover High school, was a member of the yearbook staff and majored in the executive secretarial course.

Lois G. Dandretta, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Dandretta, 125 Coachmans Lane, North Andover, also specialized in the executive course and is a graduate of Andover High school.

Choirmaster, Organist In Concert

Henry Hokans, organist, will play on June 17 at 8:30 p.m. at the Methuen Memorial Music Hall. Mr. Hokans is organist and choirmaster at All Saints in Worcester, and organist of the Worcester Art Museum. He studied organ with T. Charles Lee and William Self in Worcester, George Faxon and Donald Willing at the New England Conservatory, and Pierre Cochereau and Jean Langlais in Paris. He has been heard in recitals throughout the United States, and has made recordings for the Gregorian Institute of America and for the Aeolian-Skinner "King of Instruments" series.

Henry Hokans' program on June 17 will include: Concerto V in F Major, Op. 4, No. 5 (Larghetto, Allegro, Adagio, Presto) - George Frideric Handel; Chorale Prelude, BWV 954 - Schmuecke dich, o liebe Seele; Johann Sebastian Bach; Toccata and Fugue in F Major, BWV 540 - Johann Sebastian Bach; Symphonie VI (Allegro) - Charles Marie Widor; Symphonie Gothique (Andante sostenuto) - Charles Marie Widor; Symphonie-Passion, Op. 23 (Crucifixion-Resurrection) Marcel Dupre.

The following Wednesday on June 21, John Skelton will play at Methuen.

PUZZLED?

Have Us Unpuzzle You . . .

Confusing isn't it . . . this business of refurbishing a room . . . an area or a home. It can be downright puzzling - casual or formal . . . period furniture or contemporary . . . what colors go with what? But it needn't be a bundle of question marks. At the Studio Shoppe, there's nothing hit or miss. Designing is our science. We provide perfectly scaled sketches, complete with color swatches, furniture and accessories so that you can actually see everything . . . nothing is left to your imagination. We are Professional Members of the National Society of Interior Designers. Does that make us expensive? No! In fact, we refuse to be undersold. Don't be puzzled - Call - conjunction with the services for the festival of Shevuoth at Temple Emmanuel, Lawrence, the following young people were confirmed: Robert Abugov, Nina Mufson, Andrew Russem, Susan Sodnowsky, Leonard Traub, Lee Lebowitz, David Proiman, Harvey Sattin, Frederick Strauss, Gordon Turow, Rachel Lynch, Andrea Rabinovitz, Betsey Shack, Francee Traub, Joyce Yarmaloff.

They presented a special program, entitled "Some Thoughts on Friendship" in words and music. Michael D. Roth was guitarist for the musical portion of the program.

In Liberal Judaism, it has become a tradition to Confirm young people to the faith of Judaism during this festival of Shevuoth. Originally a celebration marking the close of the harvest season, which took place 50 days after the sacrifice of the omer, the first sheaf of barley, it now has additional significance. It marks the pact between God and mankind, given to Noah, that there would be no more universal flood, and is also the festival marking the giving of the Torah to the Jewish people. It is during this festival that the Book of Ruth is chanted in the synagogues.

Rabbi Harry A. Roth officiated at services, assisted by Cantor Irving Shuman.

Pastor Has Role In Convention

Rev. Hartland H. Gifford, pastor of Faith Lutheran Church, and Mr. C. Arthur Wood of North Andover will represent the congregation at the Ninth Annual Convention of the New England Synod, Lutheran Church in America (LCA), to be held at Endicott Junior College, Beverly, Mass., June 16 - 18, 1970.

In addition to being delegates from the local congregation, both Pastor Gifford and Mr. Wood have special convention assignments. Mr. Wood will be in charge of elections and has been a co-chairman of the convention planning committee. Pastor Gifford will serve as Director of Publicity and have charge of all relations with mass media.

Highlight of the 3-day meeting will be the election of a Synodical President. Rev. Dr. O. Karl Olander, completing his second four-year term, has indicated that he does not wish to be a candidate to succeed himself. Delegates will also ballot for the office of treasurer, currently held by Herbert V. Indsay of Worcester.

Dr. Henry Endress, Executive Director of the Lutheran Resources Commission, Washington, D.C., will be the special LCA representative to the convention, addressing delegates on matters relating to the national church.

Nearly 300 clergy and lay delegates are expected from the Lutheran churches of the six-state area.

REAL ESTATE CORNER

by Warren N. Bixby

How can you determine if a house is well-constructed?

On first entering a house, look at the hardware, trim, and fixtures. Good hardware usually indicates good quality throughout the house.

If the house has a basement, that's your next stop. Check the heating plant. Why not try it out?

Return to the first floor. Check the ceilings and walls. Small wall cracks shouldn't bother you unnecessarily. They are very common and may not always indicate poor construction. Look at the woodwork. Open and close windows and doors.

Also check the floors. Are there signs of undue wear or splintering?

WATCH NEXT WEEK FOR "ROOM FEATURES"

Your Realtor may know the history of the house. A good house is like a good friend. Information often comes from neighbors or former residents.

Our sincerest congratulations to Andover High's great track team on their performance and the title they brought home last weekend. Go for the big one Saturday... good luck!

Y To Begin Pool Registration

Registrations for the 1970 edition of the Andover YMCA private pool swimming instruction program will open June 17 at the YMCA. Next week the full schedule of pools and classes available will be released.

The YMCA expects to have approximately 15 local back yard pools available with a certified instructor directing each class session.

Primary emphasis will be placed on instruction at all levels for boys and girls 8-14 years of age, but a limited number of classes will be scheduled for 4-5 years, 6-7 years and women.

Nursery Schools To Plan

Representatives of all the nursery schools in Andover plan to meet together at Christ Church's meeting room, on the morning of June 15, to discuss goals and agenda for 1970-71.

This first common meeting of Andover's various nursery school staff members grew out of a previous session with School Superintendent Dr. Kenneth R. Seifert.

The meeting's purpose will be to share ideas and develop common goals and standards.

Directors and teachers who will meet are Carol Abdo and Phyllis Cavallaro of the Country Day School, Elaine Viehman of the Christ Church Nursery School, Bernice Warshaw of the Free Church cooperative Nursery School, Irene Rochwarg and Sylvia Niestadt of the Jewish Community Center Nursery School, Dorothy Erickson and Mary Jo Murray of the Pike School Nursery School, Audrey DesRoches and Cora Leveck of the West Parish Church Nursery School, and Helen Keegan of St. Robert Bellarmine Nursery School.

In 1969, the annual employment gain was 2.0 million, which exceeded the average annual increases recorded during the 1961-68 period of sustained economic expansion. This increase raised the Nation's total employment to 77.9 million.

Work-Study Survey Undertaken

The Guidance Department of Andover High School is presently conducting a survey of businesses, industries and professional personnel to determine job possibilities for seniors and juniors who are presently attending Andover High School. Some sophomores 16 years of age and older will also be considered for Work-Study program.

The purpose of the program is to give both non-college and college bound students an opportunity to be exposed to the world of work. The counselors along with the school administrators will attempt to schedule interested students in jobs that may be available in the community. Jobs for the non-college bound student will be, for the most part, career oriented whereas the school and college bound student will not only be given the opportunity to earn money to finance their education but it will also afford them the opportunity of work experience before undertaking formal training or education.

Representatives of business and industry who are interested in employing Andover High School students may contact Winston Ryan, guidance counselor, at Andover High School.

Fire Log

The Andover Fire Department responded to the following calls between the period of June 2 to June 8.

June 4 - Route 93, Com.m. of Mass., honest mistake.

June 7 - Box 18, Elm St., roof cave in. Mifflin, 361 River Road, electrical fire.

June 9 - Dancio, Lowell St., automobile fire.

The Andover Fire Department ambulance responded to eight calls during the same period.

Farewell Reception For AFS

On Sunday, June 7, a farewell reception was held for Elisio Pitty and Daniel Innes, by the American Field Service at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Robert Kellen, 4 Pioneer Circle.

Elisio Pitty has been in the United States since last August, living with Rev. and Mrs. J. Everett Bodge of 44 School St. He will return to his home in Panama later this month after completing a year at Andover High School and a three week bus trip in eastern United States sponsored by the American Field Service.

The A.F.S. hopes to foster greater understanding among people of the world by bringing foreign students to the U.S. and sending U.S. high school students abroad to live and study with a family.

Daniel Innes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Innes of 17 Canterbury St., was chosen by the Andover A.F.S. committee and selected by the New York headquarters to spend the summer with a French family in Southwest France. Daniel will be a senior at Andover High School next year.

"Life" magazine made a special trip to Andover to photograph the Phillips - Exeter game and tea dance in 1940.
